[FACEBOOK'S PROPOSED]
PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: Hon. Virginia K. DeMarchi

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 11.4, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party: a Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.2 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: any trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, as such terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1)(G), or any document, transcript, or other material containing such information that has not been published or otherwise made publicly available in violation of a court order to keep such information confidential. This includes (i) information copied or extracted, summarized or compiled from Confidential Information, and (ii) testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Confidential Information.

2.3 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and In-House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2.4 Designated In-House Counsel: means six In-House Counsel designated by Defendant who are authorized to access Highly Confidential Information pursuant to Section 7.3(b) or additional In-House Counsel who may be authorized to access Highly Confidential Information pursuant to Section

1 7.6 of this Order.

2 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it
3 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY
4 CONFIDENTIAL.”

5 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or 6 manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony,
7 transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery
8 in this matter.

9 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the 10 litigation, including employees of the firm with which the expert is associated or independent
11 contractors who assist the expert’s work in this action, who has been retained by a Party or its Counsel
12 to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

13 2.7 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: extremely sensitive “Confidential 14 Information or Items,” disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party would create substantial risk of 15 serious harm that could not be avoided through less restrictive means. This includes (i) information
16 copied or extracted, summarized or compiled from Highly Confidential Information, and (ii) testimony,
17 conversations, or presentations by Protected Persons or their Counsel that might reveal Highly 18 Confidential Information.

19 2.8 In-House Counsel: any attorneys who are employees of a party to this action, as well as 20 paralegals, secretaries, and clerical and administrative personnel employed by a party. In-House Counsel
21 does not include Outside Counsel.

22 2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity
23 not named as a Party to this action.

24 2.10 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this action but are 25 retained to represent or advise a party to this action or are affiliated with a law firm which has been 26 retained to represent or advise that party, as well as attorney support staff.

27 2.11 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel (and their support staffs).
28

2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this action.

2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” or as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.15 Protected Person: any Person (including a Party or Non-Party) that either voluntarily or under compulsory process, has provided or provides Protected Material.

2.16 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not in violation of a court order to keep such information confidential, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of Section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

(a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" to every page of the document.

Defendant, as a Party, is not required to re-review its productions to the Federal Trade Commission and the House Judiciary Committee to designate materials, and may re-produce such productions to Plaintiffs as Highly Confidential. However, to the extent that Facebook produces any documents in such productions in State of New York et al v. Facebook, Inc., Case No. 1:20-cv-03589-JEB (D.D.C.) (“State AG Case”) or Federal Trade Commission v. Facebook, Inc., Case No. 1:20-cv-03590-JEB (D.D.C.) (“FTC Case”), with a lower confidentiality designation (i.e., “Confidential” or not designated), Facebook shall timely re-produce such documents in this case, to reflect the lower confidentiality designation or non-designation in the State AG or FTC Cases. In addition, Plaintiffs may challenge the designation of any documents Facebook produced to the Federal Trade Commission and the House Judiciary Committee, and re-produced here as Confidential or Highly Confidential, pursuant to Section 6 herein, but agree not to challenge the designation of such documents wholesale, on the basis that their designation was mass, indiscriminate, or routinized.

(b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, a Protected Person shall have 30 days after the date when a complete and final copy of the transcript has been made available to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 30 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order. Alternatively, when it is impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection and it appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, a Designating Party may specify that the entire transcript shall be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

Parties shall give the other parties notice if they reasonably expect a deposition, hearing or other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can ensure that only authorized individuals who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) are present at the time Protected Material is discussed. The use of a document as an exhibit at a deposition shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

Transcripts containing Protected Material shall have an obvious legend on the title page that the transcript contains Protected Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all pages (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material and the level of protection being asserted by the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall inform the court reporter of these requirements. Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 30-day period for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” in its entirety unless otherwise agreed. After the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time prior to 30 days before the first day of trial. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention, they shall comply with the discovery dispute resolution procedure outlined in Judge DeMarchi's Standing Order for Civil Cases. Failure by the parties to seek court intervention within the period set out in the Standing Order for Civil Cases shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may seek relief with respect to a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. In any such discovery letter brought pursuant to this provision the parties shall attest that they have complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph.

The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

If the Court finds the designation of Highly Confidential Information or Confidential Information to have been inappropriate, the challenged designation shall be considered rescinded, however, in the case of Highly Confidential Information the Court (or Challenging Party and Designating Party, by agreement, absent a contrary ruling from the Court) may determine that the materials may appropriately be designated Confidential.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or

1 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,
 2 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 3 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been
 4 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of Section 12 below (FINAL 5 DISPOSITION).

6 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 7 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

8 7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the 9 court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information
 10 or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

11 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel, as well as attorney support staff who have 12 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

13 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including In-House Counsel) of the Receiving 14 Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 15 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

16 (c) an individual named plaintiff or class representative to whom disclosure is reasonably
 17 necessary for this litigation and who has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound”
 18 (Exhibit A), provided that such person shall not take possession of such information, and provided that 19 such person has no involvement in decision-making for a competitor of Facebook;

20 (d) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 21 reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 22 Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

23 (e) the court and its personnel;

24 (f) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional 25 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the
 26 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

27 (g) during depositions, a Party or Non-Party witness in the action, who the Confidential
 28

Information or Items indicate, or who the Receiving Party has a good-faith basis to believe, was the author, addressee, recipient, custodian, or source of the document, to the extent he or she previously had lawful access to the document disclosed or to be disclosed; and any persons for whom the Receiving Party believes in good faith previously received or had access to the document, unless counsel for the Designating Party or the witness indicates that he or she did not have access to the document, or unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(h) any mediator or arbitrator that the Parties engage in this action or that the court appoints who has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A).

7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

(a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel, as well as attorney support staff to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) Designated In-House Counsel of the Defendant (1) who has no involvement in competitive decision-making, (2) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, (3) who has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit B), and (4) as to whom the procedures set forth in Section 7.6, below, have been followed;

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the

1 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

2 (f) during depositions, a Party or Non-Party witness in the action, who the Highly
 3 Confidential Information or Items indicate, or who the Receiving Party has a good-faith basis to believe,
 4 was the author, addressee, recipient, custodian, or source of the document, to the extent he or she
 5 previously had lawful access to the document disclosed or to be disclosed; and any persons for whom 6 the Receiving Party believes in good faith previously received or had access to the document, unless 7 counsel for the Designating Party or the witness indicates that he or she did not have access to the 8 document, or unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of 9 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be 10 separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under 11 this Stipulated Protective Order; and

12 (g) any mediator or arbitrator that the Parties engage in this action or that the court
 13 appoints who has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A).

14 7.5 Rendering Advice: Nothing in this Order is intended to bar or otherwise prevent counsel
 15 from rendering advice to their respective clients with respect to this action and, in the course of 16 rendering such advice, from relying upon their examination or knowledge of High Confidential or 17 Confidential Information.

18 7.6 Procedures for Approving or Objecting to Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL”
 19 Information or Items to Designated In-House Counsel

20 (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating
 21 Party, Defendant may at any time before trial identify Designated In-House Counsel to whom Highly 22 Confidential Information or Items may be disclosed. To qualify for access under this subpart,
 23 Designated In-House Counsel shall execute a Designated In-House Counsel Agreement Concerning 24 Confidentiality in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto (which executed versions shall be maintained by 25 Outside Counsel for Defendant and available for inspection upon the request of the Court, any Party, or 26 any non-Party Protected Person).

27 (b) A Party that makes a request and provides the information specified in the preceding 28

1 respective paragraphs may disclose Highly Confidential Information to the identified Designated In-
2 House Counsel unless, within 14 days of delivering a copy of Exhibit B, the Party receives a written
3 objection from the Designating Party. Any such objection must set forth in detail the grounds on which 4 it is based.

5 (c) A Party that receives a timely written objection must meet and confer with the 6 Designating Party (through direct voice to voice dialogue) to try to resolve the matter by agreement
7 within seven days of the written objection. If no agreement is reached, the parties shall comply with the 8 discovery dispute resolution procedure outline in Judge DeMarchi's Standing Order for Civil Cases.
9 Any discovery letter filed pursuant to this provision must describe the circumstances with specificity, set
10 forth in detail the reasons why the disclosure to Designated In-House Counsel is reasonably necessary,
11 assess the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail, and suggest any additional means that could be 12 used to reduce that risk. In addition, any such letter must describe the parties' efforts to resolve the 13 matter by agreement (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and set forth the 14 reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.

15 In any such proceeding, the Party opposing disclosure to Designated In-House Counsel shall bear
16 the burden of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards 17 proposed) outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Designated In-18 House Counsel.

19 (d) Defendant may at any time before the trial of this action request disclosure of Highly 20 Confidential Information to additional In-House Counsel by consent of the Protected Person who made
21 such designation (the "Designating Party") or motion to the Court. Defendant shall provide a written
22 notice to the Designating Party and all Parties to this action stating the basis for disclosure. Defendant
23 and the Designating Party must meet and confer within seven days of the written notice to try to resolve
24 the matter by agreement. If no agreement is reached, the parties shall comply with the discovery dispute
25 resolution procedures outlined in Judge DeMarchi's Standing Order for Civil Cases. Defendant will not 26 disclose any Highly Confidential Information to additional In-House Counsel pending resolution of the 27 dispute. If the Court finds the designated In-House Counsel has a particularized need for access to the 28

Highly Confidential Information that outweighs the risk of harm to the Designating Party or the public interest, Defendant will be able to disclose the Highly Confidential Information to its designated In-House Counsel.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

Parties may not disclose Highly Confidential or Confidential Information in other litigation absent a valid subpoena or court order. If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its Protected Material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

(a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information

1 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief
 2 provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from 3 seeking additional protections.

4 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid subpoena, court order, or discovery
 5 request to produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an
 6 agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party 7 shall:

8 1. promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or 9 all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

10 2. promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in 11 this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the information 12 requested; and

13 3. make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

14 This provision is without waiver of a Party's right to object to any discovery request or subpoena
 15 seeking a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession.

16 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14
 17 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, in addition to any contractual notice period
 18 in an agreement between the Producing Party and the Non-Party covering the confidentiality and/or
 19 disclosure of the information requested, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential
 20 information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the 21 Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 22 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.<sup>1</sup> Absent a court order
 23 to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its 24 Protected Material.

25 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material

27 _____
 28 <sup>1</sup> The purpose of this provision is to alert the interested parties to the existence of confidentiality rights of a Non-Party and to afford the Non-Party an opportunity to protect its confidentiality interests in this court.

to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. MISCELLANEOUS

11.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the court in the future.

11.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

11.3 Copy of Order. When discovery is sought from a Non-Party in this action after entry of this Order, a copy of this Order must accompany the discovery request.

11.4 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e) is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the Protected Material in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(e)(2) unless otherwise instructed by the court.

11.5 Export Control. Disclosure of Protected Material shall be subject to all applicable laws and regulations relating to the export of technical data contained in such Protected Material, including the

1 release of such technical data to foreign persons or nationals in the United States or elsewhere. The 2 Producing Party shall be responsible for identifying any such controlled technical data, and the 3 Receiving Party shall take measures necessary to ensure compliance.

4 12. FINAL DISPOSITION

5 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each
 6 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As 7 used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries,
 8 and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected
 9 Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 10 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60-day deadline
 11 that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or 12 destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations,
 13 summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding 14 this provision, Counsel otherwise authorized to receive Protective Material pursuant to this Order are 15 entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing
 16 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney
 17 work product, and consultant and Expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected
 18 Material, with the exception of paper copies of source code. Any such archival copies that contain or 19 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4
 20 (DURATION).

 22 PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.
